

SOUTH CAROLINA NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

EXHIBIT RULES

- A. Each exhibitor must submit a separate application for each category or class of exhibits being entered.
- B. The exhibit application(s) must reach the address of the responsible person on the application by the date specified.
- C. SCNA officers, judges of exhibits, or their families shall not place judged exhibits. Non-competitive exhibits are permitted for these persons.
- D. All materials in exhibits must be authentic. Any replicas, forgeries, or counterfeit materials must be labeled as such and be for educational purposes only.
- E. No exhibits may advertise any contents for sale or have any statement of price or value. There will be no identification as to ownership or reference to the person displaying the material submitted for display. All materials exhibited must be the sole property of the exhibitor or owned jointly by a spouse.
- F. Up to 4 exhibit cases may be provided by the SCNA to exhibitors for use at the convention.
 - 1. Exhibitors may use their own cases provided total space does not exceed space of 4 SCNA cases.
 - 2. All cases must lie flat on the tables provided.
 - 3. No electrical outlets will be provided.
 - 4. No titles or placards or numismatic material of any kind may be placed outside the exhibit cases.
- G. Exhibits of material not capable of being presented in the usual cases will be permitted only upon prior and specific arrangement with the exhibit chairperson and subject to the concurrence of the executive board chairperson (President).
- H. In the event of any question of the legality of any material submitted for display, the decision of the SCNA President or the show exhibit chairperson is final.
- I. Exhibit rooms will be open for the placement of exhibits according to the time schedule set on the application or in the letter accompanying it. Each exhibitor is responsible for having his/her exhibit set up at the appointed time. YN's may set up Thursday, Friday or Saturday until 10:45 am. The judging for them will be at 11:00 am with award ceremony at the YN program in the afternoon.
- J. A small label will be affixed to each case denoting the number of the exhibit, the number of cases, and the group (category) in which it is entered.
- K. The Exhibit chairperson will keep a full and complete record of all exhibits, showing the name of the exhibitor, the group (category), the ID number, and number of cases used. Names of the exhibitor will not be disclosed until the judges have made their reports to the chief judge, all reports are tallied and prepared, and winners and runner-up(s) have been determined. Exhibitors who wish to remain anonymous must inform the exhibits chairperson with the application.

- L. Each SCNA display case will remain locked and sealed by the exhibit chairperson or assistant in the presence of the exhibitor. (The exhibit chairperson will keep the case keys until the exhibits are removed; or, the cases shall be locked and the keys shall be the responsibility of the exhibitor until the exhibit is removed.)
- M. Security will be provided during the show times published. Exhibitors are advised the presence of security personnel or security systems do not constitute a guarantee against loss, a policy of insurance, or a promise to indemnify in the event of loss by fire, theft or other casualty.
- N. To be considered for an award the exhibit must be in the exhibit hall prior to the deadline set forth previously mentioned according to the time stated in the application letter.
- O. The decision of the exhibit judges is final. The award will be presented at a scheduled ceremony scheduled by the SCNA President and the board members.
- P. Any questions or requested exceptions to the exhibit rules should be referred to the exhibit chairperson.
